UNIVERSITY OF NORTHERN IOWA
MARCH 26 - 30, 1993

To All National Debate Tournament Participants:

On behalf of the University of Northern Iowa, I welcome you to campus for the 47th Annual National Debate Tournament. We are honored to host this year's tournament and to support intercollegiate forensics at the most challenging competitive level.

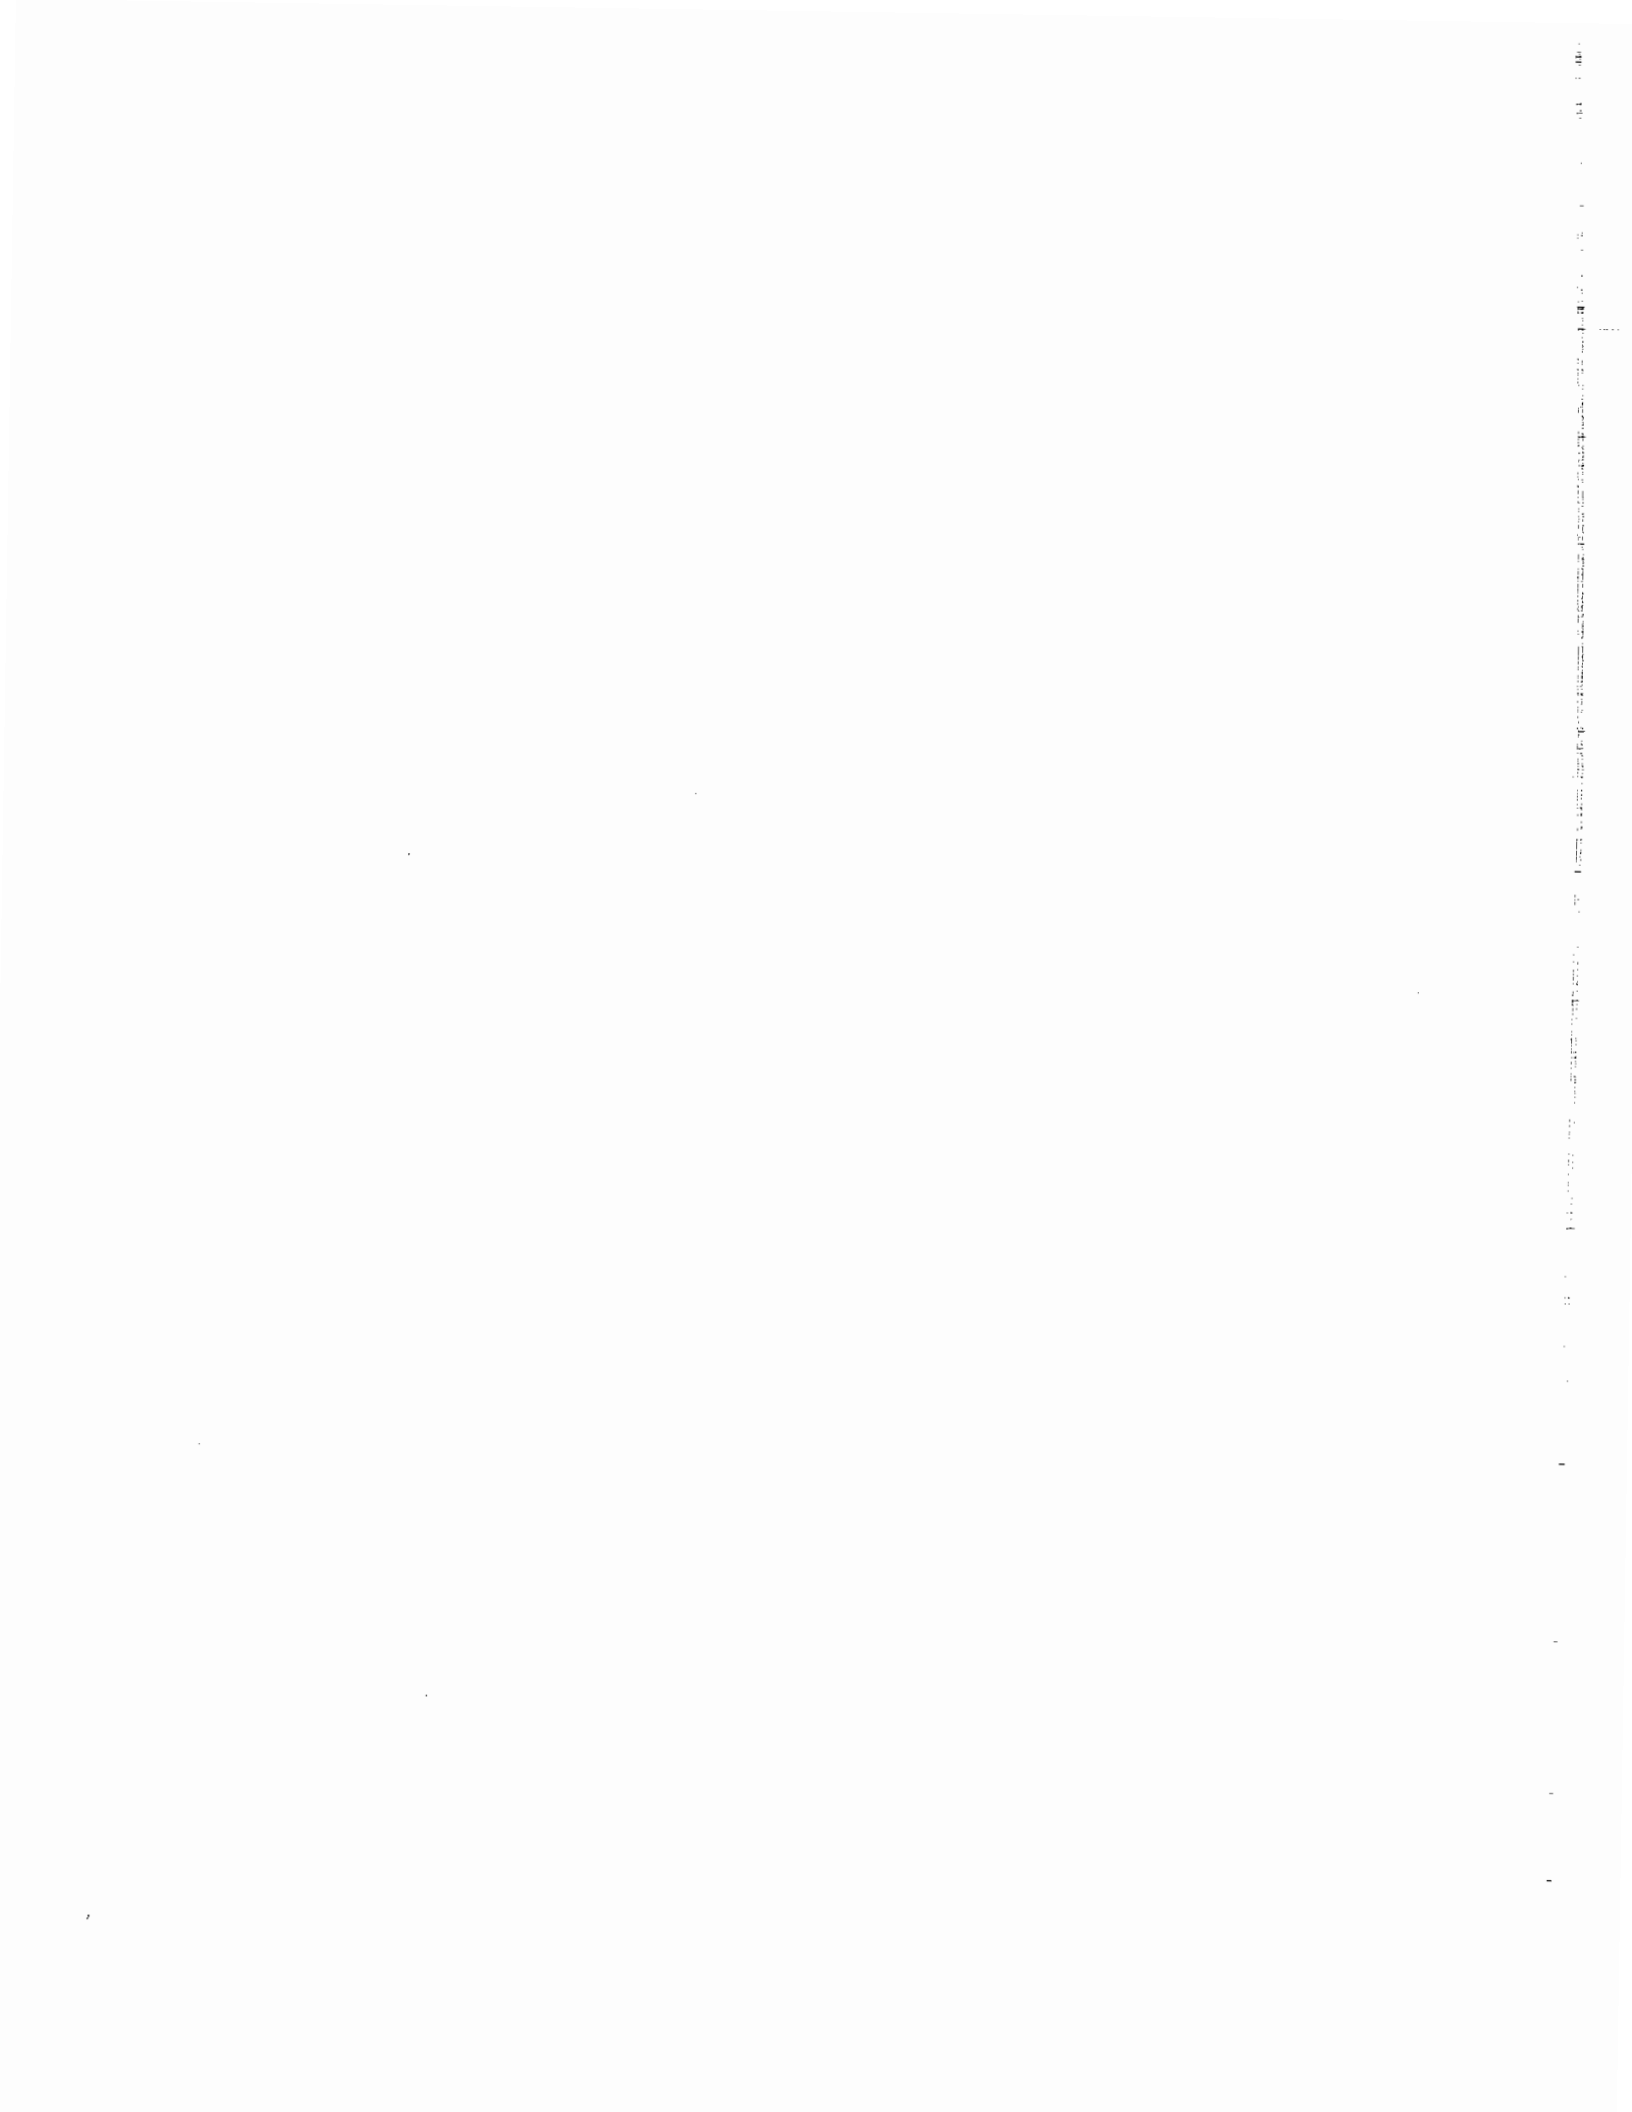

I trust you will enjoy our community and campus. The faculty, staff, and students involved in planning the NDT have put considerable effort into making this event successful. We trust your visit will be both hospitable and fulfilling.

As a veteran of the NDT, and one who fondly recalls my debating years, I congratulate each of you for having earned the opportunity to be here. I look forward to meeting many of you throughout the tournament.

With kindest regards,

Constantine W. Curris
President

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the University of Northern Iowa, host to the 47th Annual National Debate Tournament. I'm sure you will enjoy the contest and wish you all the best of luck.

I am especially pleased to know of your interest in debate, particularly because of my own personal belief in the value of argument and advocacy. As a member of the United States Senate, I use debating skills every day in crafting legislation that affects our nation.

Your study of rhetoric and argument will prove beneficial throughout your career, be it in business, government, or academia. Language is a powerful tool. Students of debate have a special responsibility to use it with honesty, and toward the achievement of democratic progress.

I hope you enjoy your time here in Iowa, and leave with a well-deserved pride in your achievements.

Sincerely,

Tom Harkin
United States Senator

Association

March 1993

Dear Debaters, Coaches and Guests at the National Debate Tournament:

It is my very great pleasure, on behalf of the nearly 1000 members of the American Forensic Association, to welcome you to the 47th Annual National Debate Tournament.

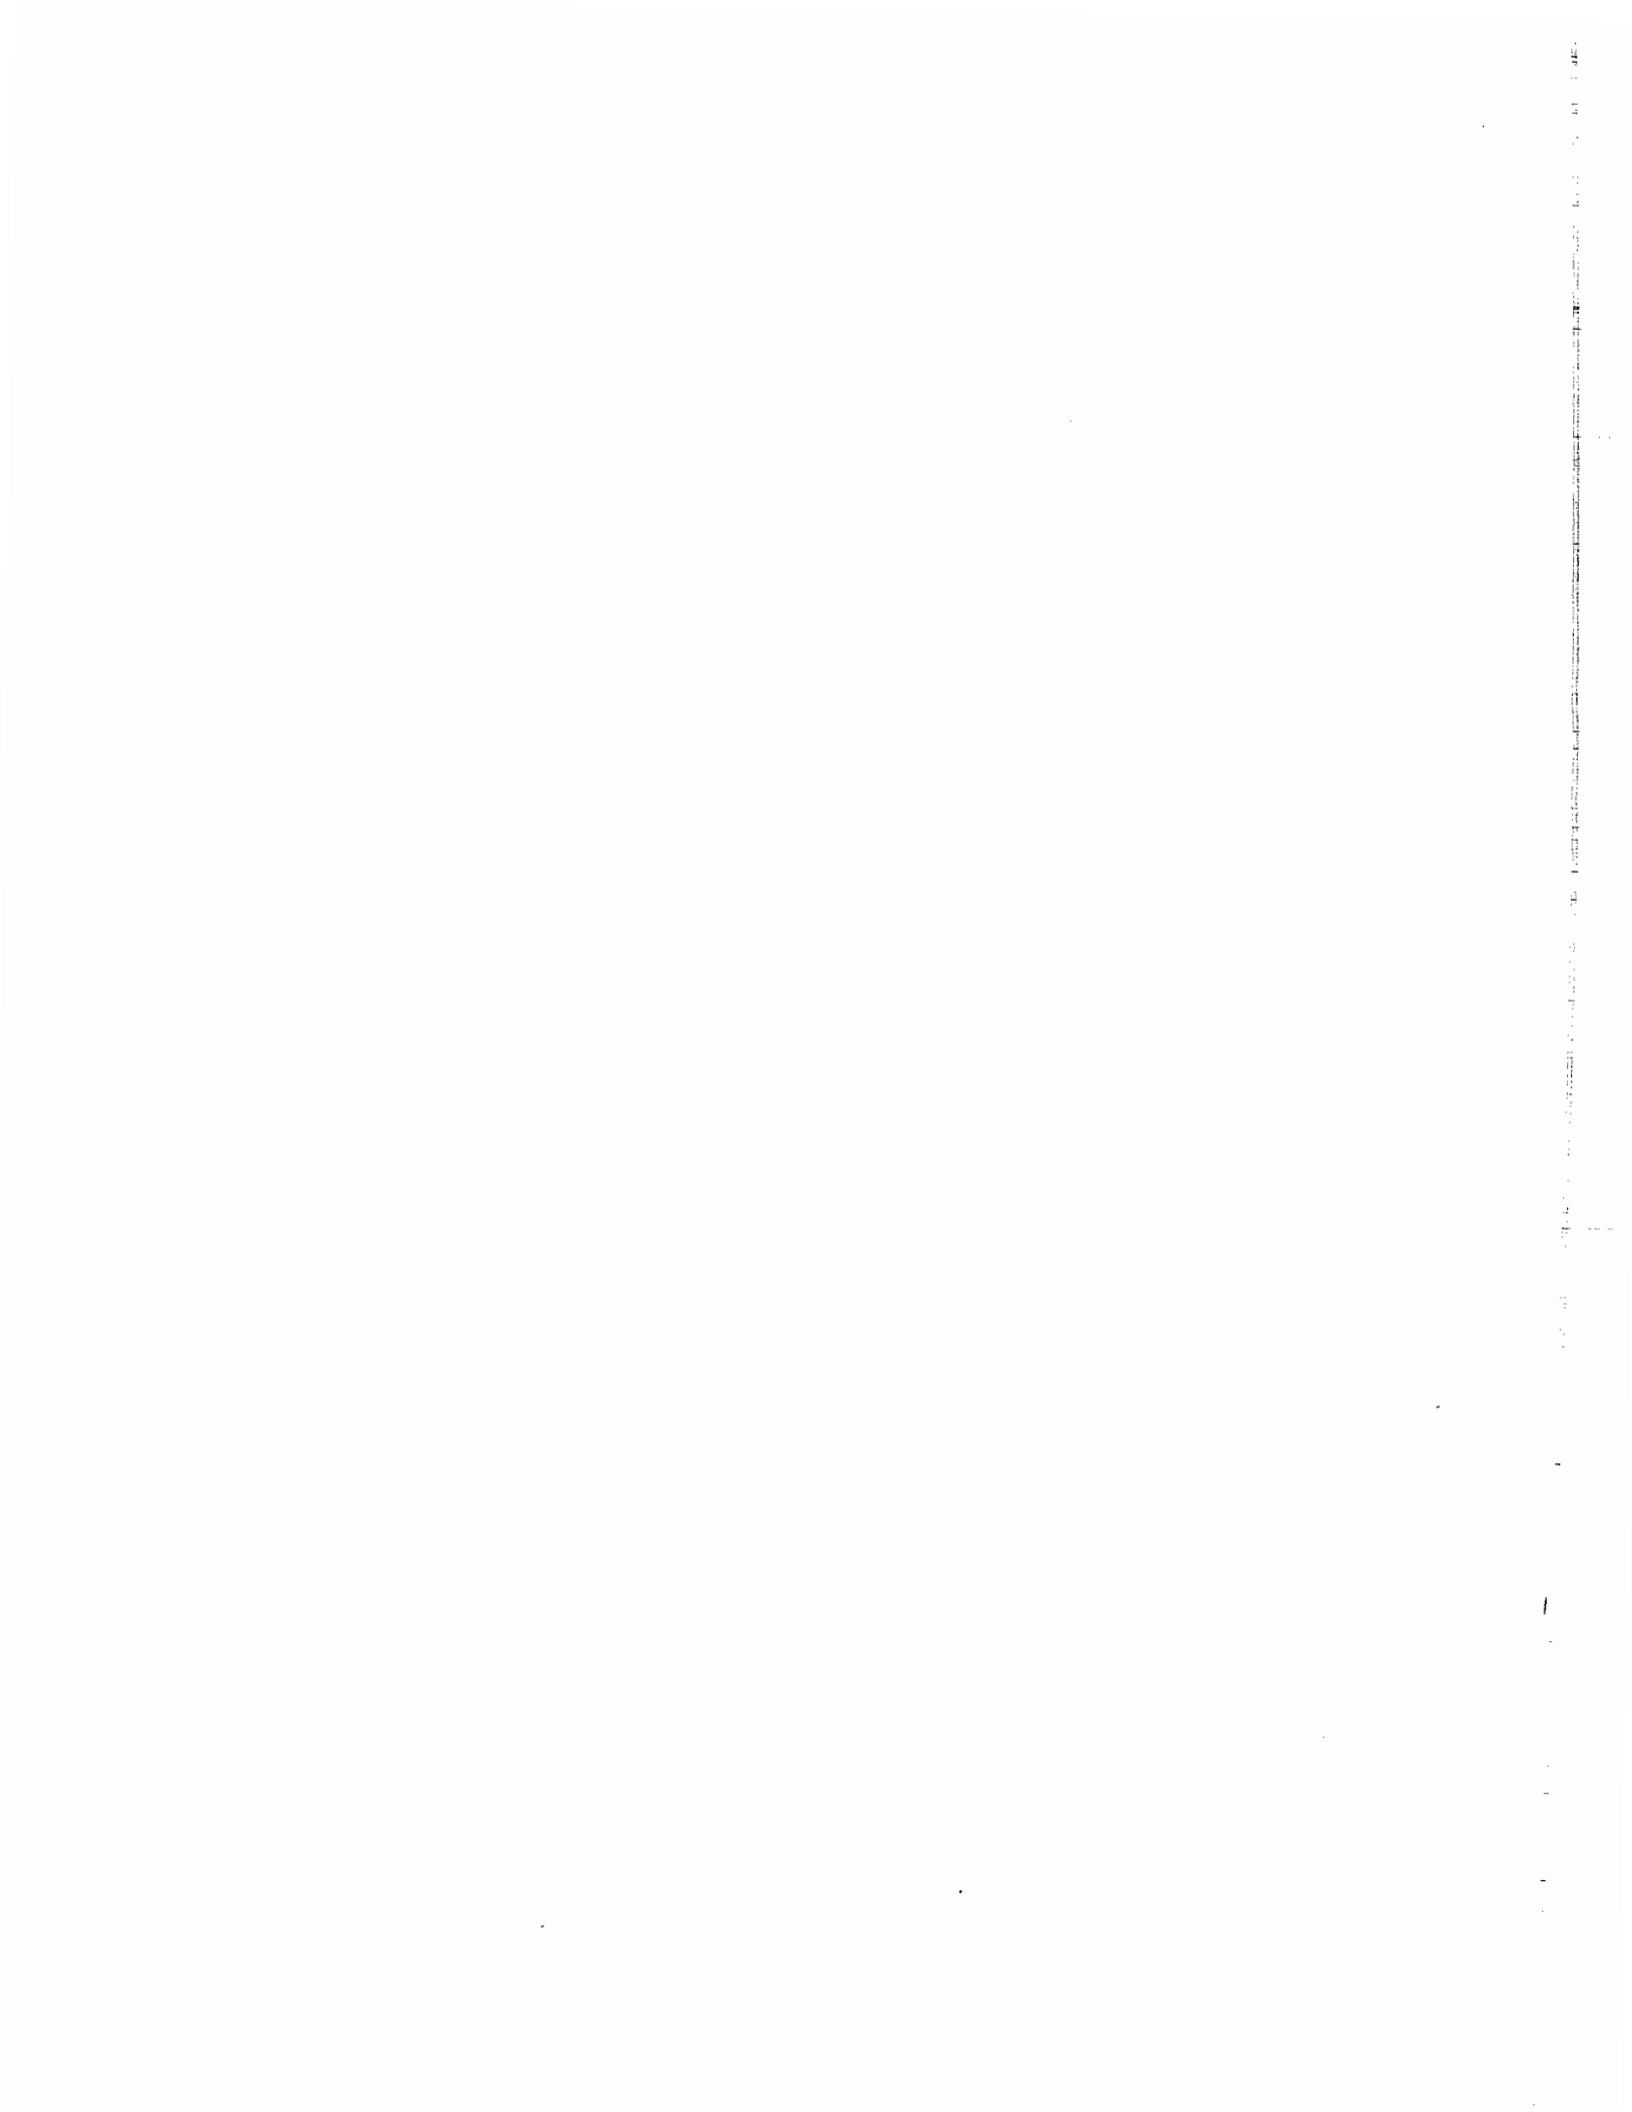

Although everyone participates in the same NDT, each of you will have a unique experience. Some will be privileged to compete in the final round for the Larman and Walker trophies, while others will be less fortunate. Although the tournament will feature many outstanding debaters, only one competitor will win the Wayne Brockriede Top Speaker Watch. Many will be participating in their first NDT, while this NDT will bring the debate careers of others to a close. Whatever your experience, I hope that each of you will have fond memories of your years as debaters and of your time at the NDT.

The AFA is particularly proud of its long affiliation with the NDT. As an organization of forensic educators, members of the American Forensic Association are committed to the power of argumentation. Toward that end, we use oral expression as a means to empower people in the situations of their lives. Through intercollegiate debate, we seek to expand the place of argumentation and advocacy, and to prepare students through classrooms, forums, and competitions for participation in our world through the power of expression.

I wish each of you the very best during the competition and I want to express the thanks of the American Forensic Association for your participation in this prestigious event.

Very truly yours,

Dale Herbeck, President
American Forensic Association

March 26, 1993

Dear Participants of the 1993 National Debate Tournament:

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I would like to both welcome you to the tournament, and congratulate you on your participation in the activity. To compete at the National Debate Tournament is to demonstrate a powerful achievement. Successful participation in academic debate requires intellectual intensity, significant dedication to a goal, and a focus on academic achievement almost unknown in other academic activities.

These are not easy times for policy debate--the required dedication and intensity which serve as the hallmark of debate also serve to limit interest. But the values and long term rewards to participants are so great that we must work to preserve the activity. Much in the same way that higher education as a whole must work to "tell its story" to a sometimes skeptical public, so must we associated with the National Debate Tournament work to tell our story--to our colleges and universities, to the press, and to the public. We have a fine story to tell--one which can attract a larger audience and more support.

We are all grateful to Dr. Bill Henderson and his colleagues at the University of Northern Iowa for opening this campus to us. I know that each of you will join with those of us on the Board in showing our appreciation for all of their fine work.

Best of luck.

Sincerely,

March, 1993

Dear Friends:

The Speech Communication Association extends greetings and best wishes to all participants, coaches, and judges in the 1993 National Debate Tournament.

Although not a sponsor of the tournament, SCA has a strong interest in your activities. We are the sponsors of the international debate exchange, we cosponsor the biennial Alta conference on argumentation, we have an active Argumentation and Forensics Division which sponsors programs at the convention, and we publish a variety of materials of concern to forensics.

SCA is the oldest and largest national organization of teachers, scholars, and practitioners of communication. Many of its 7000 members, myself included, were introduced to this discipline through active participation in forensics. And the skills and abilities developed through debate are not only of great value to each of you individually but are increasingly critical to our national life.

May this weekend be stimulating and enjoyable. And may you all have the last rebuttal.

Cordially,

To the NDT Qualifiers:

The National Forensic League extends its congratulations and good wishes to all qualifiers and coaches at the 47th annual National Debate Tournament.

Many of you were NFL debaters in high school, some of your coaches were NFL debaters and/or NFL high school coaches, and your distinguished director, Dr. William Henderson was a coach of NFL champions and is a member of the NFL Hall of Fame.

I am sure your debate career has meant much to you: The skills learned, the victories won, the defeats accepted, the friends made, the trips taken, the coaches who cared, and the memories to last a lifetime.

Now a final, signal honor. The chance to debate at the National Debate Tournament.

So, congratulations -- to you for your diligent efforts, to your coaches for their fine teaching, and to your school for its unfailing support.

We at NFL are very proud of you.

Sincerely,

TOURNAMENT INFORMATION

Access to Announcement Room

You should always carry your Meal Function Card while at the tournament. Please show your card when asked. You may not invite friends (or high school recruits) who do not have these cards. Instead, suggest that they visit the coffeehouse, use Hardees, and come to your rounds.

Tournament Hotels

The Holiday Inn – Shirley Merner's our liaison. See her if you've problems. The hotel telephone number is 277-2230. The address is 5826 University. The Holiday Inn does meet flights at the Waterloo-Cedar Falls airport and provides return shuttle.

The Best Western Midwest Lodge – Tina Healy's our liaison. The telephone number is 277-1550. The hotel is located at 4410 University. The indoor pool and sauna may help salve your feelings at having to travel a little further to the tournament.

The Vagabond Motel, 277-1412, is located at 4717 University.

The Econo Lodge, 277-6931, is at 4117 University

Waterloo Holiday Inn. Their phone number is 233-7560. The hotel is in Waterloo, at Fourth & Commercial.

Copying Opportunities in the Research Area of Announcement Room

Each participating school has a access code for one of the xerox machines. Cost is 4.5 cents per copy, but $40.00 is paid up front. No refunds. Use more than 888 pages? Pay the 4.5 cents per page to UNI. Please be fair to other users; limit your copy work when others are in line. Access throughout tournament, 7:00 a.m.–midnight.

Other Copy Sites

Campus Copies is open 24 hours a day, located just off campus, at 2218 College. Their phone number is 266-2306. Their prices are competitive, and they're alerted to your being in town.

Lexis/Nexis Telephone Connection

Your telephone lines are installed in the announcement room, and are available begin Thursday. Hours are 7 am till midnight through the tournament. The local telephone numbers for BT Global Network: 319 236-9020; Sprintnet: (319) 232-5441 or (319) 232-0195. Difficulty? Call Customer service at 800 543 6862.

Vegetarian Meals

If you requested it, notify your server that you have requested vegetarian meals. This applies at both the banquet and the other meal functions.

Campus parking during tournament

On Saturday, don't unload evidence until announcements are complete. Drive your vans to Sabin (entry from either Maucker Union or other side) and/or Business (entry easiest from west side). Large dollies will be managed by UNI students to help you transport to the buildings. From there, you'll have to lug them yourselves. As quickly as possible move your van so others can be close. Parking is permitted in any lot on Saturday and Sunday (but not next to Maucker!) and in the large parking lot immediately south of the Business Building on Monday and Tuesday.

Library hours during tournament

Thursday 7:30 a.m. – midnight Friday 7:30 a.m. – 9:00 p.m. Saturday 9:00 a.m. – 9:00 p.m.
Sunday 9:00 a.m. – midnight Monday and Tuesday 7:30 a.m. – midnight

Evidence Shift from one building to the other

If you shift from one building to the other, the large dollies will be in operation to assist you. Jeff Fuhrman will coordinate members of Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Pi Kappa Alpha, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Pau Kappa Epsilon, and Delta Chi in assisting you. Again, this is between, not into the buildings. We'll have three of these dollies in operation at all times, and our people will be told not to release them to any team. On Tuesday morning, the dollies will be located at each of the rooms in Wright Hall, so that the winning team's evidence can quickly be moved into Maucker.

Evidence Storage

You may leave evidence in the room where you debated last on Saturday and Sunday nights. However, you probably ought to put away any briefs, etcetera, since our cleaning staff is sometimes diligent. They won't bother briefcase, boxes, and carrying cases if they are stacked in a room.

Tuesday Evidence

After Monday's rounds, load your evidence into your vans, since on Tuesday rounds are in Maucker or Wright.

Smoking on our campus

The smoke-free environment is winning the battle against smokers rights. There are few places where smokers are welcome on our campus. One of them is in the smoker's bays immediately outside the Expansion area lobby. They're clearly marked, and you are requested to utilize them or outside for smoking. You were very helpful during the fall tournament. Please respect our law.

Tournament Team Pictures

Sunday after round four until before round six, team pictures will be made. They'll mail color prints within a week. The company is good, and if you buy enough copies, we don't have to pay for the NDT prints for the post tournament book. These copies will cost $8.00 (8x10) and $7.00 (5x7).

Special Services and Apologia

If you need help during the tournament, Bill Henderson will usually be around, so ask for help. The items in the publicity releases, the Host Booklet, and in various publications are often my fault. I'm sure there are errors, but thought the inclusion would be a good step. Let me know (on paper, please; my memory's growing short), and I'll pass on the corrected information to next year's Host.
