March, 1993

Dear Friends:

The Speech Communication Association extends greetings and best wishes to all participants, coaches, and judges in the 1993 National Debate Tournament.

Although not a sponsor of the tournament, SCA has a strong interest in your activities. We are the sponsors of the international debate exchange, we cosponsor the biennial Alta conference on argumentation, we have an active Argumentation and Forensics Division which sponsors programs at the convention, and we publish a variety of materials of concern to forensics.

SCA is the oldest and largest national organization of teachers, scholars, and practitioners of communication. Many of its 7000 members, myself included, were introduced to this discipline through active participation in forensics. And the skills and abilities developed through debate are not only of great value to each of you individually but are increasingly critical to our national life.

May this weekend be stimulating and enjoyable. And may you all have the last rebuttal.

Cordially,

David Zarefsky

In Memoriam
Walter Ulrich
1951-1992

To All National Debate Tournament Participants:

On behalf of the University of Northern Iowa, I welcome you to campus for the 47th Annual National Debate Tournament. We are honored to host this year's tournament and to support intercollegiate forensics at the most challenging competitive level.

I trust you will enjoy our community and campus. The faculty, staff, and students involved in planning the NDT have put considerable effort into making this event successful. We trust your visit will be both hospitable and fulfilling.

As a veteran of the NDT, and one who fondly recalls my debating years, I congratulate each of you for having earned the opportunity to be here. I look forward to meeting many of you throughout the tournament.

With kindest regards,

Constantine W. Curris
President

THE NATIONAL DEBATE TOURNAMENT

The National Debate Tournament began at the United States Military Academy in 1947. It was organized and conducted by the academy at West Point for its first twenty years. Initial tournament rules were determined by the West Point Administration in consultation with such debate coaches as A. Craig Baird of the University of Iowa, G.M. Musgrave of Des Moines, Alan Nichols of USC, E.R. Nichols of the University of Redlands, and Joseph O'Brien of Pennsylvania State University.

At the first tournament in 1947, twenty-nine colleges participated in five "seeding" rounds and four elimination rounds over a three day period. Some of the features of the tournament were that no school would meet a school within five hundred miles of itself during the seeding rounds and that no coach would judge a school from his or her own district. Many traditions were started at West Point that year, some of which still remain today: the "big board", oral announcement of round pairings, cadet escorts for each team, teams for each debate meeting under the banner of the affirmative team, and team signs in the rooms.

In 1967, the National Debate Tournament entered a new era as the American Forensic Association, the national professional organization of forensics educators, assumed responsibility for the tournament. The NDT was moved from West Point and has been hosted by a different school every year since. Control of the tournament became the responsibility of a national committee elected by those schools supporting the tournament. As debate has developed in recent years other refinements have been added to the tournament: the ten-minute preparation time rule, elaborate procedures for assigning judges, judge qualifications and published critiques of the final debate.

Over the years, the tournament has expanded in size, with various procedures used for selecting the participants. In the early days, teams were chosen by district nominating committees. This method was replaced by some form of qualifying tournaments in most districts. For the first twenty years of NDT competition the tournament host and previous year's winner received automatic invitations. Post-district at-large bids were initiated in 1968 and pre-district bids in 1971. Since 1970, it has been possible for a school to qualify as many as two teams for the NDT. This year seventy-four teams participated in the NDT. Beginning in 1992, a limited number of third teams from a school were able to qualify.

The Forty-Seventh National Debate Tournament was sponsored by the American Forensic Association with support from the Ford Motor Company Fund. The NDT is also indebted to Mr. Sigurd S. Larmon (1891-1987) for donating the rotating Larmon Trophy, emblematic of the national debate championship; to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker for donating the rotating second-place Walker Memorial Trophy in memory of their son; to Mr. Robert Feldhake, top speaker in the 1976 NDT and now an attorney in Los Angeles for donating the Wayne Brockriede Top Speaker Award; and to District IX for donating the rotating Top Speaker Trophy, and to the Copeland Family for donating the Rex Copeland First Team At Large Trophy.

District and national committees expended considerable time and effort to insure that the tournament reflects the highest quality debating throughout the nation. Sixteen teams were selected at-large by the National Debate Tournament Committee on the basis of outstanding records prior to the District Tournaments. Forty-four teams representing the nine Districts were invited on the basis of their superior debating in District tournaments. Fourteen additional teams were selected by the National Committee on an at-large basis after the District Tournaments.

All teams with minimum preliminary round 5-3 records, and 13 or more ballots, participated in the elimination rounds. Seeding was determined by win-loss records, total ballots, and adjusted team points after dropping high and low. The first elimination round featured a partial bracket so that sixteen teams remained after its conclusion, a format that the National Committee enacted for the 1987 NDT. Four subsequent elimination rounds culminated in the selection of one team as the national champion. Awards are given to the outstanding individual speakers after the eight rounds of preliminary competition.

The 1992-93 Debate topic was: Resolved: The United State should substantially change its development assistance policies toward one or more of the following nations: Afghanistan, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Burma, India, Nepal, Sri Lanka, or Pakistan.

Common affirmative cases for this year's topic included proposals modifying dam development in the topic countries. The final round offered an analysis of the Narmada dam project planned in India. Dartmouth, on the affirmative, argued that the dam needed to be scaled down in order to protect the local population. As the most populous and prospered country in the region, India was a prominent point of debate for this year's resolution. A number of cases focused on the disarray in Afghanistan left by departing Soviet influence. Many affirmatives attempted to change the assumptions of U.S. development assistance by emphasizing local control in development projects. Other affirmatives this year included: leprosy programs, proliferation agreements, flood control, population control, and agricultural policy changes.

The Debate world was saddened by the death of Dr. Walter Ulrich (1951-1992), a distinguished student, coach, scholar, judge, and supporter of American Debate. His presence will be sorely missed and we dedicate this report to his memory.

I would like to thank Heather Aldridge, David Levasseur, Ben Voth, John Bart, Geri Lamer, and Erin Parson for help in program preparation, picture identification, report information, and artistic impression.

1993 TOP SPEAKERS

The top speaker at the 1993 NDT was Matt Shors of the University of Michigan, shown here receiving the Top Speaker Perpetual Trophy, the Tiffany Bowl, from Board of Trustees Chair Tim Hynes. He also received the Wayne Brockriede First Place watch.

Matt, a graduating senior in political science from Des Moines, Iowa, had a distinguished debate career. He qualified for the NDT all four years, and last year was the 6th place speaker. He also made the elimination round each year he participated. After a year off, he plans to enter law school.

The Second Speaker of the 1993 NDT was Ara Lovitt of Dartmouth College, shown here receiving his Second Place Speaker watch from President Constantine Curriss of the University of Northern Iowa.

In addition to his many other debate awards, he was on the team which was voted the top first-round at large team in the nation and also on the team winning the National Debate Championship.

THE 1993 FINAL ROUND

National Champions Steven Sklaver and Ara Lovitt with the Larmon National Championship Trophy and delighted coaches Kevin Kuswa, Director Ken Strange and Bill Russell.

The final round of 1993 took place between the teams of Dartmouth LS (Ara Lovitt and Steven Sklaver) and Georgetown AT (Ahilan Arulanantham and Eric Truett). Dartmouth moved to the final round with a 4-1 affirmative decision over Wayne State University AG (Toby Arquette and Derek Gaffrey). Georgetown earned the finals with a 4-1 affirmative decision over Wake Forest FG (Rick Fledderman & Mark Grant). Dartmouth won the flip and chose the affirmative.

Five judges were chosen to observe the fray: Dan Lingel of Illinois State, Scott Deatherage of Northwestern, Judd Kimball of Michigan, David Hingstman of Iowa, and Derek Jinks of Texas. After thoughtful deliberation, all five came to the same conclusion -- that the affirmative, Dartmouth, had won the debate to become the 1993 National Champions.

The Second Place Team, Georgetown, with the permanent Walker Trophy and watches for each debater. With Eric Truett and Ahilan Arulanantham is Director Jeff Parcher. Arulanantham was also the Third Place speaker in the tournament.

TOP FIRST ROUND AT LARGE TEAM

The Dartmouth College team of Steven Sklaver and Ara Lovitt are shown here being presented the Rex Copeland Memorial Trophy by NDT Chair Allan Louden. The award, named for the Samford University debater who was killed in 1990, is given to the top ranked first round at-large team. Sklaver and Lovitt received all first place votes save one.

DISTINGUISHED COACHING AWARDS

Two distinguished coaches received awards for a career devoted to forensics. Shown here (l to r) are Scott Nobles of Macalester College and Holt Spicer of Southwest Missouri State University. Between them is the Larmon Trophy, which Scott received as the first NDT winner in 1947 and which Spike received as the NDT winner in 1951 and again in 1952. Both went on to successful coaching, teaching, and administrative careers, and retire this year.

Northern Iowa Hospitality

Genial host Bill Henderson chats with Keynote Speaker Senator Charles Grassley (R-Iowa) while Board of Trustees Treasurer Lucy Keele counts the day's "take".

Hospitality included both high tech installments and volunteer slave labor.
