

Archaeological Research Puerto Rico March 4 – 12, 2006

Sponsored by the Department of Anthropology–Archaeology Laboratories

- Travel over Spring Break, March 4 –12, 2006.
- Nine–day archaeology and environmental field study in Puerto Rico, plus on–campus classroom meetings during Spring Semester 2006.
- Participate in archaeological explorations, southern coast of Puerto Rico.
- Visit historic sites, museums, and natural areas, including El Yunque rainforest (Caribbean National Forest)
- Learn About Prehistoric and Historic Cultures of the Caribbean.

For information and application, contact
Ken Robinson, Director of Public Archaeology,
Department of Anthropology:
email: robinskw@wfu.edu.

