

Southwest Summer Program

Archaeology and Ethnology of the Greater Southwest

Anthropology 353/354- 6 hours
TENTATIVE
May 21-June 15, 2008

A joint production of Drs. Bowne and Simonelli!

For Information:
Dr. Jeanne Simonelli /Dr. Eric Bowne
Wake Forest University
PO Box 7807
Winston-Salem, NC 27109
336-758-4310 or 5469
simonejm@wfu.edu; bowneee@wfu.edu

cost: $1200.00 plus 6 hrs. tuition

INTEREST MEETING:
Monday, Oct. 22
5:00 PM; ANTHRO DEP'T

-New Mexico
-Arizona
-The Four Corners
Region

Study Abroad in the US!

Learn about the people, cultures and archeology of the Greater Southwest.

The program takes students on an extended camping experience through New Mexico, Arizona and the Four corners region, including archaeological sites; contemporary Native American culture, and the SW environment. On-site lectures, discussion and hands-on opportunities teach anthropology and ethnographic methods, in the beautiful settings of the Greater Southwest. Education, adventure, and good company await you this summer!

WE NEED A FEW GOOD FOLKS!