

Rosser Family Fund for Christian Service Established 2001

Mission:

The mission of the Fund is to encourage and affirm Christian undergraduate students by providing support for exploration and practice of their Christian faith through service and missions. Furthermore, the fund seeks to provide non-Christians, who are seeking to understand the faith, the opportunity to experience the Christian life through service.

Budget:

Approximately $23,000 will be available each year for students who are selected.

Awards:

The amount of the awards will vary dependent upon the number of applicants and the projects submitted. The minimum amount awarded is $500. Awards are not intended to fully fund any project.

Applications:

Applications will be available through the Campus Ministry Office, the Chaplain's Office, and the Office of Volunteer Services. Applications may also be received through email by contacting Associate Chaplain Becky Hartzog at hartzorg@wfu.edu.

The application deadlines are:

October 1: for Fall or Winter break

February 1: Spring Break or May projects

April 15: June – August projects

Selections:

The Rosser Fund committee will be composed of the University Chaplain, a Campus Minister, the Coordinator of Volunteer Services, a representative of the Dean's Office, one student representative, and one faculty representative. This committee will review the applications, make selections, and notify all applicants within two weeks of the application deadline. Consideration will be given to responses on the application, to personal fund-raising attempts, to apparent financial need, and to the reference letter. First-time applicants will be given priority.

Accountability:

All students selected will submit a written report on the project after its completion.

Money awarded for trips not taken is to be returned to the Rosser Family Fund..

Questions should be addressed to Chaplain Tim Auman, ext. 5017, aumantl@wfu.edu or to Associate Chaplain Becky Hartzog, ext. 5021, hartzorg@wfu.edu.
