Repairs and Requests for Service

Telephone service for University departments is provided through Information Systems. All requests for service should be submitted by contacting the Information Systems Help Desk at xHELP (x4357) or <http://help.wfu.edu/email.php>.

Telephones are under warranty for two years after installation. For telephone repair, call the Information Systems Help Desk at xHELP (x4357).

Long-Distance Dialing with Personal Security Codes*

For Faculty and Staff: Personal security codes for faculty and staff are subject to individual departmental policy. These codes help protect against unauthorized use of long-distance services, allow automated allocation of charges to appropriate budget codes, and provide flexibility in placing calls from various locations on campus. Faculty and staff may obtain PSCs by contacting the Information Systems Help Desk at xHELP (x4357)

Personal security codes should never be shared. All calls billed to a PSC assigned in your name are your responsibility. Information Systems will not settle disputes between individuals concerning charges to a PSC.

For Resident Students: Long-distance dialing is not provided from campus residences. See below for calling card use instructions.

Because of the non-business nature of many of these numbers, all 900 numbers are automatically blocked from all University extensions.
