April 2006

April is upon us and the school year is winding down! While each group carries on with philanthropy activities, date functions and sisterhood events, April also means saying goodbye to our seniors with cookouts, banquets or breakfasts to honor these wonderful girls. The many activities each group of girls held this semester truly show the strong sisterhoods we find on the Wake Forest campus and the Panhellenic Council is so proud to unite these amazing women under common goals. We sent delegates, along with our Greek Life staff to the SEPC convention in Atlanta from March 31st through April 2nd and they came back with great new ideas on improving all aspects of the council as well as improving unity among Greeks at Wake. Also this month, through the dedication of our wonderful chairs, there will be a Panhellenic-wide cookout, a day of discounted haircuts at Tranquility and a night of faculty babysitting. We hope that each of you have a wonderful and enjoyable end of the school year, take advantage of the warm spring weather, and have a great summer! See you in August!

CHI OMEGA

In the month of April, Chi-Omega is very excited to celebrate all of its members with Junior and Senior Experience events and with our Senior appreciation week. We have a get together with the Delta Sigma Theta sorority on the 7th to meet one another and hopefully become partners in future events on campus. We plan to be very active in the Blood Drives coming soon and in Kid's Fest on the 23rd. Chi-Omega's annual bar-b-que is coming up so all of our ladies, including new members, can come together for an afternoon of good food and good conversation. Lastly, we have our final Senior banquet to honor our seniors and wish them luck in their future endeavors. We LOVE our new members and can't wait to continue our traditions with them! –Jessica Hayes

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Though it is hard to believe, we are approaching our final four weeks of the semester. Tri Delta has many exciting events to look forward to in April and a few activities that already started the month off on a great note. Our collegiate district officer came the first weekend of the month to meet with all the officers and discuss their positions and goals for Tri Delta, and was a very informative and beneficial visit for our chapter. Also, April 2nd was the annual Pansy Breakfast to honor the seniors and reflect on their years as a sister of Tri Delta. To continue in honoring the seniors, we will have senior week from April 17th to the 21st. In addition to sisterhood, we will also participating in events such as intramural kickball, Turtle Tug, and DESK throughout the month. –Caroline Kirwin

DELTA ZETA

Delta Zeta kicks off the month of April with Killarney Rose, our two-day spring semi-formal. On April 6, DZ will host its annual spring philanthropy event, Turtle Tug, in which campus teams participate in a tug-of-war contest over a wading pool filled with green jello. DZs are looking forward to an afternoon filled with laughter, fun sportsmanship, and, of course, a lot of sticky green jello. During the month of April, Delta Zeta will also participate in D.E.S.K. and host an evening of babysitting for faculty members. As the semester nears its end, DZs will honor their seniors with a Cheeseburgers-in-Paradise themed Buffet Bash at the end of the big sister appreciation weekend. –Mallory Biegler

KAPPA DELTA

The ladies of Kappa Delta close the school year with a number of events! April 1st is Girls Sports Day, where over 40 local Girl Scouts come to campus for an afternoon of fun and games led by our talented and athletic sisters. Then, on April 5th, the first ever national Kappa Delta Stand Up! Stand Out! event will be held in the Magnolia Room to celebrate the opportunities of women with opening statements by Deborah Best, Dean of Students. On April 2nd, Kappa Delta will host our annual Italian Wedding party at the Millennium Center, one of our favorite events! We are so excited for Kappa Delta Regalia, our semi-formal, which will take place the weekend of the 21-22nd of April. During the last week of classes, Kappa Delta will honor our seniors with a cookout on the 23rd and a sisterhood banquet on the 24th. The spring of 2006 has been great for Kappa Delta and we can't wait to continue our tradition and strong sisterhood in the fall! –Renae Odom

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

April is a busy month for Kappa! On April 3rd, you can find Kappas on the Mag Quad from 4:00-6:00 painting desks to benefit local schools who need new supplies. We are also excited to host an Easter Egg hunt for children of the faculty on April 9th and hope to make this event a tradition within the Zeta Psi chapter. Another new tradition Kappa is introducing this year is our crush party shrimp broil! We plan on hosting this event on April 20th on the Kappa patio. On April 26th, we will hold "Senior Poems" where each senior will be recognized with a poem about her. Finally, we will honor seniors with brunch at senior banquet on April 27th.

On Monday, April 17 our sisterhood will host a campus-wide Easter Egg hunt on the main quad, so go find your hidden candy-filled treasures all day long! The next day, April 18th, we will have another initiation ceremony to welcome more new sisters. Third Dimension on April 24th is a time to honor our seniors, who officially become Phi Mu alums. On Reading Day, Thursday, April 27th, we have our annual Phield Day! Held at the Watertower Field, this event gives the sisterhood one last chance to bond before the seniors graduate. Throughout April, our new sisters are busy meeting upperclassmen and becoming an integral part of Phi Mu, while the seniors are enjoying their last few weeks as sisters.

PI BETA PHI

The Pi Beta Phis have been crazy busy in the month of March. We have had social events from the F.M.O.C. date function, to mixers, and of course spring formal. As for Philanthropy, Pi Phis were heavily involved in planning and participating in Wake N' Shake and even ended up winning Sigma Chi's Derby Days philanthropy event. Our new members were all initiated this March and we are very excited for all of these women! Coming up in April, all of the Pi Beta Phi chapters in the state of North Carolina will be celebrating our Founders' Day together in Raleigh on Saturday, the 8th. In lieu of chapter on Monday the 10th, we will be having a Founders' Day banquet in the Magnolia Room. The Pi Phis are also lucky enough to have our LDC from Pi Phi nationals visiting for the exciting Founders' Day weekend. —Kristina Kratz
