October 2006

Fall is upon us and the leaves are beginning to change. While September went quickly with the first weeks of class, parties and tailgates, October welcomes cooler weather and an undefeated football team! Go Deacs!

With Parents Weekend, Fall Break and Halloween, October is an exciting month for sorority women on the Wake Forest campus! After the enormous Greek participation and outstanding success of Hit the Bricks for Brian at the end of September, groups are getting excited for two of October's biggest events: the Breast Cancer Fashion Show and the first-ever Fall semester Greek Week! The Panhellenic Council kicks off the 11th annual Breast Cancer Fashion on October 16th in Benson at 7pm. Benefiting the Susan G. Komen Triad Affiliate, the 80's themed show ("Pretty in Pink") is participated in and directed by Greek women and is sure to be a great evening! Greek Week, from October 25th through 29th, will have sororities and fraternities paired into teams and battling it out in everything from community service at Project Pumpkin to sing-and-dance at Greek Sing. Come check it out and cheer on teams as they strive for the Greek Week Championship!

Enjoy your October!

CHI OMEGA

Chi Omega is going to have a great October with many fun activities planned ahead. We are looking forward to Parent's Weekend with fun filled activities both Friday and Saturday night. On Friday October 6th, we have the Chi Omega Brian Piccolo Silent Auction where we hope to raise over $20,000 for cancer research. On the 16th, we are very excited to attend and support our very own Ashley Cozyn, who will be representing us in the Breast Cancer Fashion Show. We are also really excited for Greek Week the 23rd-29th, where we will be partnered with Kappa Sigma and Kappa Alpha. We have already started practicing for our favorite part of Greek Week, which is the dance. October 26th is going to be a busy but amazing day with Project Pumpkin in the afternoon and Owl-O-Ween at night. We always have tons of kids come play at our booth during Project Pumpkin. Owl-O-Ween will bring out the Halloween spirit in people along with some fabulous costumes and dancing. –Taelor Leinss

DELTA DELTA DELTA

After ending September on such a high note by winning Hit The Bricks for both number of laps and donations, Tri Delta is excited and ready to make October an equally incredible month. We start October off by welcoming parents to Wake with a brunch and a tailgate before the football game. On October 19th we have our annual philanthropy event, Triple Play, to benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. We are looking forward to seeing the Wake community come out for a great time and for a great cause. Tri Delta is also gearing up for Greek Week, Project Pumpkin, and all the other exciting events in October. –Caroline Kirwin

DELTA ZETA

Delta Zeta kicks off the month of October with our annual "Dunk a-DZ" fundraiser, to be held on the Mag Quad Friday, October 6. Girls volunteer to get dunked, raffle prizes are chosen, and everyone has a fun time! The proceeds from our fundraiser will go to The Painted Turtle, a camp in California for children with chronic or life-threatening illnesses. DZs are excited to have our parents here for Family Weekend, and will be showing them a good time during our tailgate Saturday morning and brunch Sunday morning. DZs are also thrilled to be participating in and attending the Breast Cancer Fashion Show and Greek Week the following week. Delta Zeta will be showing their appreciation for our wonderful faculty here at Wake Forest with their Faculty Appreciation Breakfast to be held October 24. Also, alumnae will provide Delta Zeta with a potluck dinner that evening to celebrate Founders Day. Finally, our monthly social will be a Halloween Party on October 27. In the meantime, we will be finalizing details on recruitment and practicing our cheers during two recruitment workshops in October. -Mallory Biegler

KAPPA DELTA

October will be an exciting month for the ladies of Kappa Delta. October 5 is the annual Toga Party, our first crush party of the semester! KD is also excited to welcome our parents with a tailgate for Parent's Weekend. Greek Week has long been on every KD's mind, and the sisters cannot wait for the events to begin as we fight for our 10th straight Greek Week Champions title! Kappa Delta will also support the breast cancer research by attending the Panhellenic Breast Cancer Fashion Show as a chapter and holding a Breast Cancer benefit date function on the 27th. -Rena Odom

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

Kappa is excited about the events of October. Kappa Kountry is Thursday the 5th at Ziggy's and we are also planning a Halloween date function. We are eager to welcome our alumni and advisors on Founder's Day, which is the 22nd and are also excited to participate in Greek Week from the 23rd to the 29th! -Amelia Smith

PHI MU

Phi Mu is looking forward to another month filled with sisterhood events and inviting our new Phis to become a part of the sisterhood. National Philanthropy Day is October 16 which we will be celebrating. On that same day, we will be attending the Breast Cancer Fashion Show, which one of our sisters is co-leading. Along with sisterhood lunches and movie nights we will be having more townhouse parties to incorporate our new Phis into the sisterhood! –Stephanie Mixson

PI BETA PHI

Pi Beta Phi would first like to congratulate Randi Frisby, our VP Administration, on winning Homecoming Queen! Yay Randi! The ladies of Pi Beta Phi will be very busy in the month of October. We have put together a community service committee to plan and participate in different activities around Winston-Salem. Their first activity will be to read to students in elementary schools. To reward girls for outstanding scholarship, we are giving out prizes to the girls with the highest GPAs in their classes and are having a "Smart Girls Party" for girls with a GPA over 3.14. We have a tailgate and brunch planned for Parent's Weekend. Our Alumni Advisory Committee is having its monthly meeting with the executive board on Sunday the 9th. A date function (with a theme only known by the social chairs) is planned for Wednesday the 11th. Ashley Morgan is putting together the Chicken Stew Fall Festival on October 24th at the Children's home in Winston. Our members are also very excited to participate in all of the activities planned for Greek Week! –Christina Kratz
