

Wake Forest Students, Faculty and Staff
Can Access SCOLA Online for FREE

Information Systems is sponsoring a free trial of the online video stream of SCOLA channels now through December 31, 2006.

This service provides access to live video stream of the SCOLA channels:

- SCOLA Channel 1: Broadcasts daily from Europe
- SCOLA Channel 2: Programs featuring Spanish and Portuguese from Latin America talk shows, documentaries, music videos and more.
- SCOLA Channel 3: CYRTV (Chinese Yellow River Television from China)
- SCOLA Channel 4: Asian Programming featuring Thai, Korean, Hindi, Tagalog
- SCOLA Channel 5: Programming from Africa and the Near East

PLUS!

- Access to "Week in Review," an archive of programming from 90 countries
- Access to Country Connections and Additional Content with samples of world music, SCOLA culture photo gallery, and periodical archives of copyright-free materials.

To access the free trial, visit www.scola.org,
and enter username eyear2 and password 77777

Existing SCOLA Services

We continue to provide access to two satellite SCOLA channels and the Insta-Class portion of the SCOLA Web site that includes transcriptions and translations in 20 languages; news broadcast in the original language and an English translation, supplemented by vocabulary, quizzes, grammar exercises and/or topics for discussion; and individual weekly Insta-Lessons.

Access SCOLA's Insta-Class by visiting www.scola.org, and enter username wfu.edu and password scola63f.

For pricing information about SCOLA offerings, contact the Information Systems Help Desk at xHELP (x4357).